“High Grace, High Truth”

Ephesians 4:17—5:1

<sup>17</sup> So I tell you this, and insist on it in the Lord, that you must no longer live as the Gentiles do, in the futility of their thinking. <sup>18</sup> They are darkened in their understanding and separated from the life of God because of the ignorance that is in them due to the hardening of their hearts. <sup>19</sup> Having lost all sensitivity, they have given themselves over to sensuality so as to indulge in every kind of impurity, and they are full of greed.

<sup>20</sup> That, however, is not the way of life you learned <sup>21</sup> when you heard about Christ and were taught in him in accordance with the truth that is in Jesus. <sup>22</sup> You were taught, with regard to your former way of life, to put off your old self, which is being corrupted by its deceitful desires; <sup>23</sup> to be made new in the attitude of your minds; <sup>24</sup> and to put on the new self, created to be like God in true righteousness and holiness.

<sup>25</sup> Therefore each of you must put off falsehood and speak truthfully to your neighbor, for we are all members of one body. <sup>26</sup> “In your anger do not sin”<sup>[a]</sup>: Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry, <sup>27</sup> and do not give the devil a foothold. <sup>28</sup> Anyone who has been stealing must steal no longer, but must work, doing something useful with their own hands, that they may have something to share with those in need.

<sup>29</sup> Do not let any unwholesome talk come out of your mouths, but only what is helpful for building others up according to their needs, that it may benefit those who listen. <sup>30</sup> And do not grieve the Holy Spirit of God, with whom you were sealed for the day of redemption. <sup>31</sup> Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice. <sup>32</sup> Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

Ephesians 5

<sup>1</sup> Follow God’s example, therefore, as dearly loved children.

Reflection and Discussion Questions

1. Do you agree that, from a biblical perspective in terms of our Christian relationships, "All truth is ultimately gracious and all grace is ultimately truthful"?
2. Where would you place yourself on the grid in your family relationships?
3. Where would you place yourself on the grid in your peer relationships?
4. Where would you place yourself on the grid in your church relationships?
5. How would you describe the personality of SPC in terms of this grid?
6. Think of a person from whom you are currently alienated. Have you been a "peace-breaker" or a "peace-faker" in your response to them?
7. Ask the Lord to give you the humility and courage to become a "peace-maker" with this person(s). What would that require of you?
8. SPC is now a congregation of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church, whose slogan is: "In essentials, unity; in non-essentials, liberty; in all things, charity." Where would you place that statement on this grid?
9. How does believing the gospel help you to be a "high grace, high truth" peacemaker?
